
Properly installed sump pump.

Discharge point at side of house.

Digging a trench to extend discharge through yard.

Final discharge point

Prior to sale of a home, City ordinances require the seller or his agent to inform the buyer that the home may have footing drains connected to the sanitary sewer.

In addition the City ordinance requires that during the licensing process rental units shall be inspected for footing drains connected to the sanitary sewer.

Questions? Call 730-4130

Be part of the solution - help us keep Duluth's environment clean and healthy!

INFLOW & INFILTRATION

The City of Duluth's Inflow and Infiltration Program

Addressing Overflows

INFLOW & INFILTRATION

DULUTH